I further promise to pay the principal and interest on the whole sum of both principal and interest to be due immediately, due and collectable at the option of the holder of this note and in case said is instructed to collect this note or any portion thereof I promise and agree to pay in addition to the costs and disbursements provided by statute a reasonable fee of $15.00 in like gold coin for atty fees in said suit or action.

Due Sept 17, 1915

at Latah Co. Idaho

Signed Joseph Evan

That said note has not been paid on any part since it was issued.

That said note is by its terms made payable at Latah Co. Idaho.

That there is now due and owing the plaintiff from said defendant by virtue of said promissory note the sum of $44.08 together with interest thereon at the rate of 8% per annum from the 17th day of June 1915 to the date of judgment.

That the sum of $15.00 would be a reasonable fee to be allowed by the Court as an atty fees in this action, wherefore the plaintiff prays for judgment against the defendant as follows:

For the sum of $44.08 as principal of said note together with interest thereon at the rate of 8% per annum from the 17th day of June 1915 to date of judgment.
