

Latah County News Paragraphs

Items of Interest Taken From Neighboring Papers

An alarm of fire was sounded at about 6 o'clock Wednesday morning when smoke was noticed coming from the basement windows of the K. of P. hall. The fire department was soon on the job and the fire under control, but not until some $500 damage had been done by fire, smoke and water.

It seems the fire started on the north end of the basement at the end of the bowling alleys. The alleys had been in use the night before but whether the fire started from the accidental dropping of a cigarette or cigar stump or whether some small boy had thrown a firecracker in through one of the small windows, which happened to be open.

The bowling alley is practically ruined, as were the balls and pins, pool and billiard tables, and the interior of the basement and banquet hall will have to be redecorated.—Genesee News.

A carload of sixteen thousand pounds of sodatol was delivered to farmers of Latah County from Troy on Monday of this week by County Agent O. S. Fletcher. Another carload of the same size was delivered from Deary last Friday. Orders from eighty-nine purchasers were delivered from the two shipments. The sodatol delivered from Troy cost the purchasers 7.4 cents per pound net, while that delivered from Deary cost 7.65 cents net.—Troy News.

It is surprising how the grain has improved since the early June rains. In this section the crop will not be nearly as much below normal as folks had feared. Spring wheat is coming fine, and there are fields of fall wheat that give promise of making 30 bushels to the acre. Bean planting is still under way.

The Potlatch Oil and Refining Company's deep well has reached a depth of 2200 feet. Work was held up for a while on account of a small "fishing job," which we presume is the oil hunters' way of saying that they had lost some tools. Drillers have a method of getting out lost tools that permits of only a little delay in their operations. This well is to be sunk at least 4000 feet unless the big pool is struck before that depth.—Deary Press.

The watermelon crop in the Juliaetta section is progressing nicely. There will be about 55 acres all together and they are of the famous non-irrigated variety. They sold for 3 cents last year on the Camas and Nezperce prairies against 2 cents for melons from other sections.—Juliaetta Record.

Stiff jolts in the way of fines were handed out to two liquor law violators in the probate court Monday morning by Judge Adrian Nelson when he fined Alvin Mattson from near Kendrick $60 and John Heath, also from near Kendrick $100, on charges of being intoxicated and disorderly.

The two men, together with Jess Whitcomb were taken in hand Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Grant Robbins and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Latham D. Moore at Community hall, on Bear Ridge north of Kendrick. All three were alleged to be thoroughly intoxicated and causing considerable disturbance in the dance hall and adjacent property.

Whitcomb when arraigned before Judge Nelson, waived preliminary examination and was held to answer to the district court. The fines given the two other men are unusually stiff, but their conduct, Judge Nelson said, warranted the sentences.—Star-Mirror.

Latah Clubs Enter Contest

Will Feed Pigs for Big Cash Prize of $3.00

Twelve Latah County boys and girls have entered the Idaho and Pacific International pig feeding contests for club members, and have organized the Latah County pig feeding club. These contests are sponsored by the Portland Union Stockyards Company, which is offering $300 in prizes at the Lewiston fair and $1,000 at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition, in co-operation with these shows. Each contestant will show four pigs from the same litter, but all are starting with extra pigs and eighty-three head are now being fed by the twelve Latah County boys and girls.

The pigs entered in these contests must be shown at the Lewiston fair, and winners in this contest will be exhibited at the Portland show. In making awards the judges will consider individuality of the pigs judged from the prime market standpoint, rate and cost of gain in weight, and completeness of accuracy of records and story of the project. All pigs entered in the contest were weighed the beginning of the feeding period.

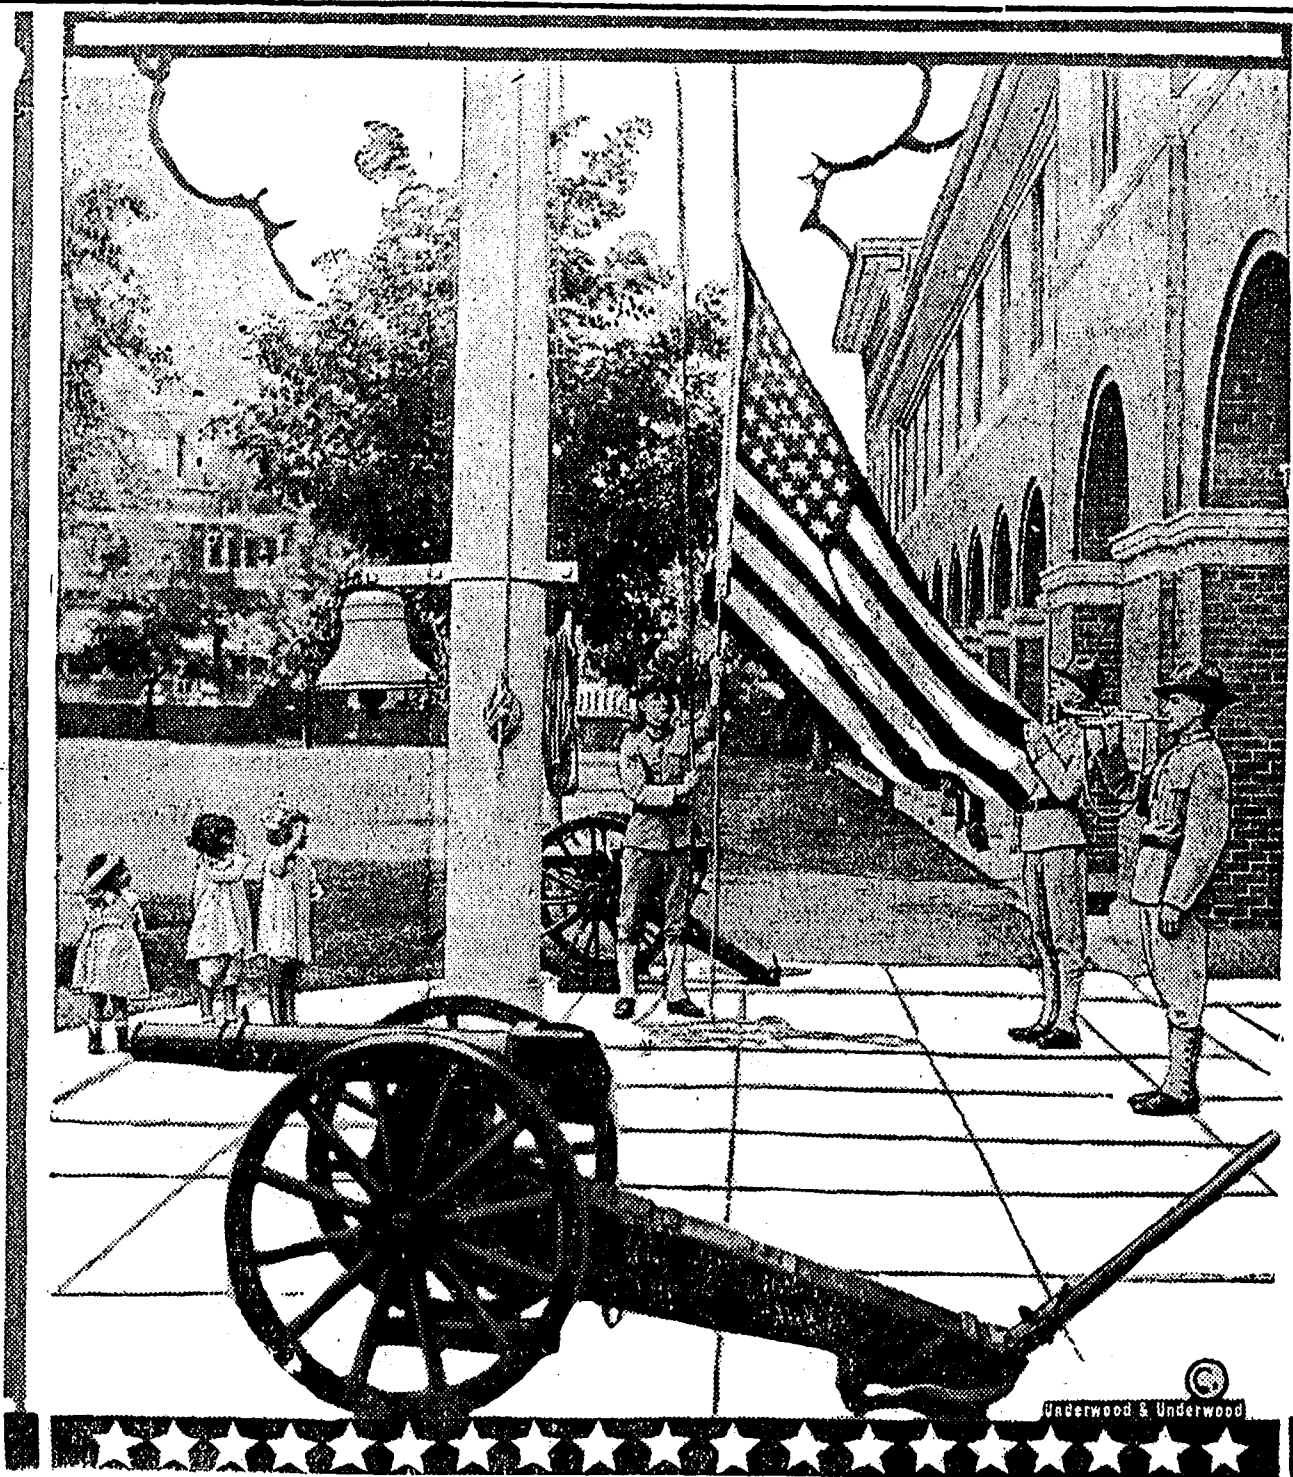

The purpose of the contest as stated by G. A. Pierson, president of the Portland Union Stock yards, Company, is to give the club members practical experience in feeding pigs for market purposes and to eliminate the rate of gain in weight, cost of gain, and profit that can be made. In a statement regarding the contests, County Agent O. S. Fletcher said: "The club members will not force the pigs, but will carry them as might be done by any farmer in Latah County. Green pasture and waste from pea and grain fields will be utilized to the fullest possible extent. In fact, any club member who tried to keep his pigs up and force them would be handicapped because of the increase in cost of gain. Complete and accurate records will be kept by all contestants, and when the feeding period is over and the data summarized, we should have some very valuable information on the cost of producing pork in Latah County."

Officers of the club are Felix Papineau, Moscow, president; Elmer Sawyer, Palouse, vice-president; Lawrence Dailey, Palouse, secretary-treasurer; and County Agent O. S. Fletcher, leader. Other members of the club are Russell Allen, Thomas Papineau, and James Phelps, of Moscow; Marjorie Jones, Raymond Spencer, Virgil Thompson, Ralph Curtis, and Howard Patton of Palouse; and Ronald King of Potlatch. H. A. Stone, district club agent for northern Idaho, assisted County Agent Fletcher in organizing the club.

Shipping Wood Pulp

A. E. Wilcox, local N. P. agent, is trying an experiment, which, if proving popular, will very likely be engaged in on an extensive basis. He has had a number of white fir logs cut and hauled to Orofino for shipment to the Inland Empire Paper company mills at Millwood Washington, to be made into paper pulp. One car was loaded Monday and went out Tuesday and is the only one to be shipped until the financial returns come in. If they prove profitable, Mr. Wilcox will probably furnish the company with many cars. His action is the outcome of several visits made to Orofino by Mr. Black, the buyer for the Inland Mills who has been trying to interest local people in the business. The logs are bought by cord measure and paid for f. o. b. cars here. What the price will be depends largely on the quality of the logs. The Tribune will inform its readers, if possible, of developments when the returns come in.—Clearwater Tribune.

Idaho Poultry Improving

Pren Moore, poultry specialist of the extension division of the University of Idaho, spent four days in Latah County last week assisting County Agent O. S. Fletcher and poultry raisers of the county in poultry improvement work. Meetings were held in Genesee, Cedar Creek, Avon, Deary and Princeton communities. At these meetings poultry culling was demonstrated and general problems of poultry growers discussed. Special visits were made to farms in Juliaetta, Deep Creek, and Farmington communities to assist individuals on special problems.

Mr. Moore states that in all parts of Idaho farmers are paying more attention to good poultry, and that the income from chickens, turkeys, and other farm poultry is becoming more and more important in defraying current expenses on farms that keep some poultry as a side line.

Poultry improvement is one of the major projects of the Latah County extension service under the direction of County Agent Fletcher, and farmers of the county have made marked improvement in their flocks during the past three years. In discussing the development of his flock of chickens with Mr. Moore and Mr. Fletcher, Anton Hanson of Avon community said: "Three years ago when you held a poultry meeting at my place, Mr. Moore advised me that half of the chickens of my flock were culls and showed me how to cull them out. Today you have not been able to find any real culls to use in showing the difference between profitable and unprofitable hens. I have also learned how to feed my chickens for profitable egg production, and they are the chief source of income on this farm."

J. I. Mitcham, former mail carrier on route No. 2 out of Kendrick, writes from Tiger, Wash., that the dry weather has burned that country up. He says he has been doctoring his injured leg for the past 18 months and is not getting along very well. Mr. Mitcham carried the mail on route 2 for nearly 20 years.

Death of Ben Petrick

Ben Petrick, who for so many years has suffered terribly with an incurable spinal disease, died peacefully at his home here at 9:15 Wednesday night. During the past two weeks the hot weather increased his sufferings to almost an unbearable extent, so that death came as a welcome relief from his pain.

Ben was a splendid character. During all of his years of suffering he was patient and uncomplaining and his kindly disposition and undaunted spirit were always the predominating feature of his personality.

During his years of illness Ben had the loving care of his father and mother who have devoted their lives to make him as comfortable as it was possible to do. Either his father or mother was at his bedside day and night during the last years of his illness.

Funeral services will be held at the Presbyterian church Saturday morning, at 9:30.

An obituary will be published in next week's Gazette.

Bonus Blanks Here

Adjusted compensation blanks for the soldiers' bonus may be had by all ex-service men upon application to Dr. G. W. McKeever, post adjutant of the American Legion post of Kendrick. The blanks are now on hand and it is hoped that ex-service men will secure them without delay.

Planting Bullfrogs

A shipment of eastern bullfrogs was sent into Orofino recently to stock mill ponds and other bodies of water in Clearwater county. They were distributed over the county by the deputy state game warden. Atwater Lake, near Kendrick ought to prove an ideal place for these frogs and a shipment could probably be secured for Kendrick at a later date. The legs from these eastern frogs are said to be a delectable dish when properly cooked.

New Rochdale Manager

Wm. A. Watts took over the management of the Kendrick Rochdale Co., Tuesday, July 1. The position was offered to Mr. Watts several months ago after the company had received the resignation of Theo. Hanson, who is the retiring manager. The duties of the position are familiar to Mr. Watts as he served as assistant for several years in the Rochdale Company under John Waide. He has since made a thorough study of some of the more important features of the work which his position requires and is without doubt most amply qualified to look after the interests of the company. His appointment to this responsible position will prove a popular choice throughout the Potlatch.

Mr. Hanson, who as so ably managed the company's business here during the past five years, has not made any definite plans for the future. He has had several good positions offered to him but is not in a hurry to make a decision. However, it is practically certain that the Hanson family will leave Kendrick some time in the near future.

Change Postmasters

John F. Brown, who for the past eight years has served the patrons of the Kendrick post office, retired from office Tuesday, July 1. He has served during this entire time without a vacation of any kind and has hardly been out of town for more than a day at a time during this period.

Hugh Stanton, for 4 years served as assistant postmaster with his brother, Harry, is now official postmaster of Kendrick. He will retain his interest in the store here but will devote all of his time to the work of the post office. He will be assisted in the office by his wife. The patrons of the office may reasonably expect excellent service during Mr. and Mrs. Stanton's tenure of office.

Miss Telma Woodward of Moscow is visiting at the J. F. Brown home.

Kendrick News 20 Years Ago

Item Taken from the Gazette Published in 1904

T. B. West was in Moscow last Saturday attending a meeting of the republican county central committee. Among other things the committee decided to cut down the number of delegates from each precinct of the county. On the new basis Kendrick is entitled to nine delegates instead of fifteen as formerly.

Hon. Burton French was married last Tuesday to Miss Hartley at the latter's home in Nebraska. The happy couple started immediately for the west and will arrive in Moscow Saturday. They will come down here tomorrow so as to be on hand for the celebration Monday. The many friends of Congressman French in Kendrick and vicinity will be glad to have this opportunity to congratulate him on his marriage and to meet his bride and to wish them a long and happy married life.

Jess Collins was up from Lewiston the fore part of the week looking after business interests here and in Moscow. The family will move to Genesee shortly where Mr. Collins has the contract for the erection of a brick block.

Charles Chandler returned Monday evening from the white pines, where he has been for the past three weeks. He gained considerable in weight and says the mountains and timber are the place to spend a vacation and recuperate your health.

We have been having some real, old-fashioned hot weather this week, the thermometer crawling pretty well toward the hundred mark.

Mrs. Martin Thomas and children spent a few days this week in Clarkston visiting her father, Mr. Lemon, of that place. They returned yesterday morning.

Messrs. Niles and Beam, the new Juliaetta merchants were in Kendrick yesterday looking over the situation here.

In the royal battle of fire crackers, Roman candles, rockets etc. on Main Street one man was wounded and carried off the field.

Math Jacobs arrived from the Jericho Thursday evening accompanied by Charles Schill who will spend a few days enjoying the fruit, vegetables etc. on the Potlatch and visiting friends here.

Car Over the Grade

Jeff Flesman and family had a narrow escape in their Franklin car Wednesday afternoon. They were returning to their home on Potlatch ridge by way of Sperry grade. When they got around the second curve something went wrong with the car and the brakes wouldn't hold. The car went over the grade and partly turned over. Some of the occupants jumped and others were thrown out. Mrs. Flesman suffered a bruised shoulder but no one else was hurt. The car was quite badly damaged, the top being practically ruined.

Jess Dale Clemenhagen

The funeral of Jess Dale Clemenhagen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clemenhagen, who died at his home on Bear ridge last Saturday, was held at the residence at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. Peter Hesby of Deary preached the funeral sermon at the house and held a short service at the Wild Rose cemetery where interment was made.

Jess Dale Clemenhagen was born on Bear ridge, February 28, 1916. He died June 28, 1924 at the age of 8 years, 4 months and 2 days. He is survived by his parents, one sister and six brothers.

The deepest sympathy is felt in the community for the bereaved family in their deep sorrow.

Liberty and Justice Under American Flag

Many people are disposed to undervalue symbols, while others exalt them above the thing signified. The American flag as a symbol is to be revered for what it represents, and only because it does represent certain things which the American people ought never to forget. We all know what those things are, and yet at times they do not seem to have any vital relation to the life of the people. Liberty, of course, is witnessed to by the flag. But there are strange ideas afloat about liberty. It does not mean the right of every man to do as he pleases, but it does mean the right of the citizen to use his own faculties for his own development. Our liberty has a long history, reaching back into English history which, up to the revolution, was also ours, and is yet up to the revolution. American liberty is not a creation, but a growth which culminated in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

It is for this sort of liberty—an ordered and institutional liberty—that our flag stands. It is also the pledge of equality of opportunity. Self-government, the right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," the great federal principle and the representative system—these are some of the blessings that Americans should think of when they see the national emblem. The flag is the flag of a people who have been called on to make great sacrifices in behalf of noble causes, and who have not held back. National independence, freedom, national unity, democracy—men have fought and died for these when they fought and died for the flag. When it was carried to Europe in the great war it was greeted by all peoples as the banner of liberty and justice—and so it is.—Indianapolis News.

July 4, 1776 and 1924

Strong faith had answered doubt and silenced fear,
And love of freedom, mothering resolve,
Faced down the dangers which bold deeds involve
When Right and Wrong on challenged front draw near,
And one road only seems to Duty clear!

Tho' fingers trembled, courage gripped the pen,
And names were written—names of simple men
Thus made immortal and forever dear.

Undying words above undying flames,
From thee anew the living spirit flames

In every soul that still loves liberty!
O, flames, consume the false gods of our day,
Dispel the fog of error, light the way
Where travels Truth, Who makes and keeps us free!

FARM NOTES

Yellow corn has more vitamins than white corn they say.

One cannot make bricks from straw, nor can one produce good crops from poor soil.

Trapping is perhaps the most effective method of destroying moles, but they may also be poisoned.

Rye is a better pasture crop than wheat because of its more resistant qualities and in its being apparently better adapted to thin land.

When It's Hot---

That's the time to stop here and order a big, heaping dish of Purity Ice Cream. Pure and wholesome, it is the ideal summer sweet—for it cools as it pleases with a variety of flavors to meet every taste.

It's a wonderful dessert for any meal this hot weather.

Two manufacturers of home-cooked moonshine liquor were indulging in a bragfest concerning the relative excellence of their products.

"I make mine so strong," said one, "that the man who drinks it can smell the naysed in the hair of the guy who plowed the corn."

"Humph!" was the contemptuous comeback of the other. "I recently spilled a little of mine on a garden where my wife had planted some modest violets and when those seeds grew up they were tiger lilies.—Ex.

"Willie," asked the teacher, "what was it Sir Walter Raleigh said when he placed his coat on the muddy road for the beautiful queen to walk over?"

Willie, the ultra-modern, gazed about the classroom in dismay, and then, taking a long chance, replied: "Step on it, kid!"—Ex.

Tommy had swallowed a penny and his mother was in a state of alarm.

"Helen," she called to her sister in the next room, "send for a doctor: Tommy has swallowed a penny."

The terrified boy looked up imploringly.

"No, mamma," he interposed, "send for the minister."

"The minister?" asked his mother incredulously. Why the minister?"

"Because papa says he can get money out of anybody."

Poultry Notes

The wise poultry raiser knows that early hatching catches the best profits.

Young goslings should be kept out of the sun on hot days or they will suffer from the heat.

Gather eggs to be set often and keep them in a cool, dustless place, turning them twice daily.

The best cure for a hen with the egg-eating habit is to give her a dose of iron—applied just back of the ears.

You can count your chickens before they hatch if you observe carefully the correct principles of egg selection and incubation.

Sweet clover, five years ago considered a troublesome weed by most farmers, now stands ahead of alfalfa in acreage in Ohio.

Farmers should prepare to fight the destructive watermelon diseases which seem sure to be with us this season. Where farmers fail to make the right kind of a start, there is no hope for their crop.

Sudan grass can be grown on a sandy loam if it is well drained and fairly fertile. It is used as a summer pasture crop. It should not be sown with sweet clover because they do not belong together.

The more ventilation allowed the more the egg evaporates. Skill in running the incubator consists in balancing these two factors so the eggs do not smother or dry out.

Rubbing it in.
