Items of Interest Taken From Neighboring Papers

W. E. Gorrie has been appointed postmaster at Deary pending civil service examination for fourth class postmaster. The last examination was for third class postmaster and was held under executive order, instead of the regular civil service. After the examination had been ordered, but before it could be held, the Deary postoffice had been relegated to the fourth class. Hence the necessity for another examination.—Deary Press.

Another few days of good weather will finish the threshing for this part of the country and most of the farmers will be happy for they have more grain than they expected earlier in the season. On the whole the yields have been good, some going as high as 40 bushels and more which is very good for any season, much less one where the rainfall has been almost negligible.

You can't beat the good old Palouse if you live to be 100 years old and hunt the balance of the time for a better place.—Genesee News

Lovers of the silent drama, who have been clamoring for a show house in Troy will have their wishes gratified within a short time. J. F. Hickenbottom arrived Tuesday evening from Milton Oregon and will open a theatre in the Reftman building, formerly used as such. Mr. Hickenbottom has had eight years experience in the motion picture business and recently sold out his business at Milton. He has brought his own machine but has purchased the seats formerly used here and is busy getting the building put in shape and other necessary arrangements made.—Troy News.

Latah county's pea crop is practically harvested now, local dealers state, with a yield which is quite satisfactory in view of conditions and circumstances surrounding raising of the crop this year, and the extreme lack of moisture throughout the growing season.

While it is extremely hard to make any predictions as to what the probable average yield has been in the county, and any figures at this stage could only be an estimate until a more thorough survey and check of returns is made, it appears that an average of 5 1-2 sacks to the acre will just about hit the production for the Moscow district.

Some raisers are reporting much better yields than that, however, but on the other hand many have only harvested four sacks to the acre. One of the best yields which has come to the attention of the Star-Mirror was that mentioned in a news story a few days ago, when N. A. Nelson of near here, reported 12 sacks to the acre for a 50-acre tract. Few, however, will report yields reaching that figure; six to seven sacks is not an uncommon figure, though.

While threshing is practically finished or will be finished within a few days but small quantities of peas are being sold on the local market, nor will the majority of the crop be disposed of by farmers until later in the fall. Peas are fast becoming one of the staple crops of this district, each year seeing a larger acreage given over to their raising, and farmers are generally well pleased with the returns on the crop, and see a good future for Latah county as the pea raising section of the northwest.—Star-Mirror.

The Gus Wegner bean thresher in the Cameron community was due to start operations yesterday morning and the company machine is expected to start today.

The Spillman Lecture

Plans are progressing nicely for the lecture by Dr. Spillman to be given in Kendrick at the New Kendrick theater, at 2 o'clock, Friday, September 26. It is hoped that the people of this community will make their plans to attend this lecture. It is free to everyone and farmers of the surrounding country are urged to attend.

We quote from a letter by Dr. Spillman:

"I hope in this series of lectures to give the farmers of the 'Inland Empire' my ideas as to the future of the various enterprises that are adapted to that country. I want to tell them what they may expect in the matter of prices for wheat. I want also to show them what the probable future is for fruit growing enterprises, truck farming and the various livestock enterprises, such as dairying, beef cattle and sheep, also poultry. I shall deal with the adaptability of these enterprises to local conditions and point out the advantages and disadvantages of each of them. I shall also want to deal to some extent with the problem of maintaining soil fertility for unless that is done the agriculture of any region must ultimately fail."

It is hoped that the people of the community will not get the idea that Dr. Spillman is going to advise the impossible. He knows our country and its possibilities and will talk along practical lines. He will be worth hearing. Remember the date is September 26.

Begin Crushing Rock

Frank Lyons, commissioner of the Cedar Creek good road district, was in Kendrick the first of the week. He said that the new grade would be in good shape for travel by the middle of next week. The grading is all finished but there is still some ditching to do and culverts to put in.

The grade is standard width with the exception of something over a mile through the heavy rock work, where it was narrowed to save expense. By cutting down the width through the rock it is said the commissioners saved $30,000. There are sufficient turnouts to make the road perfectly safe for any kind of travel even through the narrowest places.

Mr. Lyons stated that Contractor Booth is setting up a rock crusher and will begin to crush rock and spread it on the new road bed at the lower end of the grade and also a section of the upper end, leaving a section in the middle that will have to be surfaced in the spring.

The crushed rock will be put on 8 inches deep except over the rock portions, when will be covered to a depth of 6 inches. Enough rock will also be crushed and placed in convenient places for maintenance work.

When this section of highway is completed Cedar Creek ridge will have one of the most scenic grades in the state. It is an easy automobile road and passes through a beautiful, wooded section of the ridge. It marks the most progressive step in the history of the Cedar Creek country.

Young Wife: "Oh, I am so miserable; my husband has been out all evening, and I haven't the faintest idea where he is."

Experienced Friend: "My dear, you mustn't worry. You probably would be twice as miserable if you did know."—Ex.

Recital a Decided Success

The recital given by the pupils of Mrs. R. F. Brown at the Methodist church, Wednesday evening, attracted a large crowd. The program lasted for two hours and the young folks did very well. The program consisted of piano solos and duets by the children and several selections by Mrs. Ramey and Mrs. Brown.

Juliaetta Cannery Starts

The Juliaetta cannery plans to open up the season's run on tomatoes the coming week. Tomatoes to blight, which has been so destructive to the tomato industry in other section, while having made its appearance here, thus far has done but slight injury. The growers are keeping the disease pretty well under control by digging out and burning each plant just as soon as the disease manifests itself. It is claimed that the blight is a fungus disease and there are those who think that if a tablespoon of powdered sulphur were placed under each plant at the time of setting it out that the disease would not appear. However, the agricultural scientists confess they have been unable to find a remedy that will eradicate the disease.

With tomatoes selling at 2 cents a pound in bulk and watermelons down to a cent and a half a pound at the patch, and with sweet corn down to ten cents per dozen ears, the citizens of Juliaetta are now prospering.—Star-Mirror.

Register Opening Day

Just to remind you again that school opens Monday, September 8th. The teachers are desirous that all belonging in the grades register the opening day and attend regularly. The H. S. students realize the value of an education and will be on hand the opening day full of "pep" and determination to make good not only this year, but until their course is finished. The seventh and eighth graders, especially the older ones, look to you high school students for an example. To them you are either a help or a hindrance. Which do you prefer to be? Which do you think preferable?

There is much unfinished work, especially in the seventh grade, so please come the first day, if nothing more, and talk the matter over with the teacher in charge. Each day you are absent lessens your chance of completing your grammar room work this year.

Just a word to the parents. You authorize the School Board to hire teachers to teach your children. You are taxed to pay us. The school room is designated as the meeting place. We cannot teach your children unless they meet with us. If you want the very best for your money send your children the first day and regularly during the school term. Won't you please do this? If you do, both children and teachers can and will do their best work. Sickness is the only valid excuse for absence. Now and then there may be an exception.

Children, come, wearing your Sunday face. The teachers are planning to wear a smile, not only on Monday, but all thru the week. Your respective rooms are anxious to greet you. Each has been beautifully dressed in white with a deep golden hem at the bottom and shoes scrupulously clean. You won't disappoint them, will you? And parents won't you try to make it possible for your children to be with us Monday? Please send them and we will try hard to do the rest. Here's wishing a successful school year.—A Teacher.

W. P. Romans of Spokane and County Agent Fletcher were in town yesterday making arrangements for the Spillman lecture to be held in Kendrick, Friday, September 26. Mr. Fletcher stated there would be a barnyard meeting at 9:30 o'clock at the Wm. Cox place on American ridge. Prof. Nordby, swine specialist, and Prof. Atkeson, dairy expert, both from the University of Idaho will be present at this meeting along with Mr. Fletcher.

The frosts last Friday and Saturday nights did little damage in this section, except in small areas where the ground is low. Bean growers from various parts of the Potlatch state that little damage was done to that crop.

Juliaetta Teachers Named

The Juliaetta school will begin the fall term on September 8th with the following staff of teachers:

Principal, Cameron King of Lewiston; assistant principal, Mrs. Adele Daubenberg of Kendrick; grammar grades, Miss Edith Minden of Clarkston, Wash.; intermediate grades, Miss Isabel Cray; primary grades, Miss Grace Porter of Juliaetta.

The full four years high school will be carried in the school, and every thing seems to point to a successful school year.

On September 20th, the annual school election will be held at which time six trustees will be elected, this now being an independent district.—Star-Mirror.

The school house has received a new coat of paint and the interior has been fumigated and thoroughly cleaned. Practically all of the library books have been destroyed to prevent the spread of disease germs. Mr. Calvert and the school board are asking all scholars to purchase new books rather than to try to exchange for second hand books so that no disease will be spread through the use of old books.

Raising Chinese Beans

Considerable interest has been aroused by the introduction of a new variety of bean in the Potlatch. A patch of 8 acres was grown this season by Wm. Behrens, who secured the seed from the United States Department of Agriculture, through the efforts of E. W. Porter.

The beans are called the Chinese Bean. In size they are between the Great Northern and Navy bean and are of a pure white color with a gloss like the California bean. The vines stand well up, therefore, carry the pods off the ground.

Mr. Behrens states that this variety yield heavier than any bean he has ever grown and they ripen as early as the little Navy. On account of curly leaf being present in so many fields that were planted with diseased seed, the new variety will probably, prove popular for seed purposes.

Mr. Behrens says that three years ago the U. S. Department of Agriculture sent out small samples of this bean to every state where beans are grown. Some of them were sent to Boise and they were given to E. W. Porter who brought them to Juliaetta. The sample consisted of about 40 beans. Mr. Behrens planted them and got 60 pounds after a hail storm had hit the patch and injured the beans so that some of them shriveled in the pods. These were hand picked and a half gallon planted last year which produced 3 1/2 sacks. This year he planted about 8 acres which he estimates will yield 8 sacks to the acre.

Those who are interested in the bean business might do well to inspect this patch while it is growing, as it may prove to be a profitable variety to plant in this locality.

3100 Miles in 10 Days

At 9 o'clock p. m. Sunday, Capt. Schnellhardt, Capt. Bronson, Chief Engineer Bradshaw, of the good ship "Hardship" and Al. Hakim, recent chairman of the Brooklyn boxing commission, arrived from that city in Kendrick. They made record time with an Essex 1293 model touring car, making the 3100 miles in 10 days running time.

The young men are visiting the Emil Larsor, H. Koepp and C. Koepp and their families, who are relatives of Capt. Schnellhardt, though the real purpose of the visit is to get some inside information on farming.

Capt. Bronson is thinking seriously of buying an extensive place and raising corn on a large scale. Capt. Schnellhardt is giving dancing lessons daily this week in Herman Koepp's silo. Chief Bradshaw left Wednesday morning to attend a wedding at San Francisco at which party he will be the most prominent figure. Mr. Bradshaw expects to return with his bride to Thompson's Falls, Montana, where he will enter a life's work of road building for the benefit of tourists.

Mr. Al Hakim, although well along in years, is thinking of staging a boxing club in Lewiston where all family and inter-family feuds can be settled fairly before a board of competent judges. Mr. Hakim expects to stage a bout in the near future as there is a growing feeling of hatred between Alex Larson and Henry Ford.

The quartet has been generously entertained and banqueted by numerous friends this week.

School to Add 2 New Subjects

To Teach Community Civics and Economics

Two new subjects are to be added to the local high school schedule when school opens next Monday, 8:40 A. M., September 8th. They are Community Civics and Economics coming under the Social Science department. In order to show the why and where-for of these subjects a brief explanation will be attempted. The ultimate aim of both the subjects as of all modern education is "social efficiency", good citizenship.

Community Civics or civic education consists not merely in acquiring a fund of information concerning one's own community or its government but for the student it means a process of growth the cultivation of those essential qualities that make for success. Every student has in some form the same civic interests from which all community and inter-community interests or action springs which of course is the foundation of all community arrangements and larger institutions, including government. Attention then will be given to the bringing of these real civic interests of the students into the foreground of their consciousness and relate them to the interests and activities of the community as a whole, and to the government as the community's means of cooperation.

Since it is clear that participation in the activities of our modern industrial and social life calls for knowledge of the common and fundamental principles of Economics an attempt will be made to fill this apparent need. Again, the growing social and political importance of economic problems, the marked increasing complexity of governmental-industrial relations, the changing relations of capital and labor, of employee and employer, the development of labor organizations once more emphasizes the need for such instruction at the present time. The philosophic side of Economics of course will not be studied to any great extent.

The course in Community Civics will be open to members of the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes, while Economics will be open only to those in the Junior and Senior class.

D. A. McClain, Principal of the Kendrick High School.

N. B. LONG & SONS

"The Home of Good Things to Eat and Wear"

Many large industrial concerns throughout the United States owe their success to some conservative policy adopted and strictly followed out.

Every farmer should adopt this policy. How many acres of land on your farm are unproductive that could be made useful? For example, some farms have an old fence that serves no useful purpose but which occupies valuable space. An isolated tree here and there that could easily be removed and an overhanging hedge-fence which takes up space that could be used.

By adopting conservative methods in this as well as other lines you can increase your total production with practically the same amount of time and expense.

Isn't it worth thinking about?

Northern Pacific Train Employees Are Complimented

Minneapolis Traveler Says "North Coast Limited" Service Is Superb

The "North Coast Limited," one of America's fine trains, and the passenger of Northwest passenger service, has won the approval of thousands of friends for the Northern Pacific during its 25 years of operation. Constantly improved, with the most modern refinements of railway transportation—perfected sleeping cars, "famously good" dining cars, luxurious observation cars having barbers, valets, baths, libraries, writing desks, card rooms, smoking rooms, buffets, restful chairs, sightseeing windows and platforms—the ten "North Coast Limited" trains of 1924 set the fashion for comfortable travel.

How well the "North Coast Limited" serves its passengers is shown by the following letter written by W. F. McMahon, of 200 Washington Ave., No., Minneapolis:

"Having just returned from the Pacific Coast trip, I wish to thank you for the many courtesies extended by your office in Seattle and your several employees in charge of your 'North Coast Limited' train leaving Seattle Wednesday, April 9th, at 9:30 A. M. Your Pullman and dining car service is superb, and leaves nothing to be desired."

The "North Coast Limited" is one of the fast trains of America. It runs from Chicago to Seattle in 72 hours.
