

News Notes From Kendrick School

Student Activities as Told by Special Correspondent

The Kendrick five added another victory to their string when they subdued Juliaetta team at Juliaetta last Friday night, score being 27 to 8.

Owing to the fact that the hall was poorly lighted and the movable nature of the baskets the locals were greatly handicapped in piling up a much larger count. Carlton, forward for Juliaetta, succeeded in finding the basket for 6 of their 8 points, while Flaig, forward for Kendrick, in the three quarters that he participated, made 17 of the 27 points for his team. The locals lacked pep and team work. In tonight's game the line up may be changed considerably in order to develop a faster offensive.

A small but very enthusiastic group of rooters attended the game at Juliaetta.

Kendrick has thus far in three games made a total of 116 points, and holding their opponents for a sum of 31 points.

Come out tonight and help make a winning team. Your support will be greatly appreciated. Deary comes down for a double header. Game called at 7:30 sharp. Don't miss the girls exhibition game.

For Juliaetta the players were: Cox as center, Carlton and Taylor, forwards; Turner and Clark as guards.

For Kendrick: forwards, E. Flaig and H. Flaig; guards, F. Brocke and R. Sparber with C. Bell as center. Subs, F. Foster, O. Thomas, B. Brown and Bob Dammarell.

Referee, John Dammarell.

In typing III the students have made graphs for each month, these are to keep the net rate in their speed tests.

On Friday evening the High School is planning to celebrate Halloween by a party in the school house.

The play which is to be given in a few weeks under the instruction of Miss Seeley is making rapid progress. It is "The Union Depot" and a very clever play.

The 5th and 6th grades are entertained the 7th and 8th grade at a Halloween party last night.

An arithmetic test was given in the 6th grade last week. Those averaging above 90 per cent were: Edna Stanton, Billy Wilmont, Eldwa Janes and George Bailey.

The Safety Club of the 3rd and 4th grades met Monday and selected a committee which drew a club pledge. The committee were Nellie Crocker, Leola LaHatt and Elmer Fraser.

The grades are making Halloween decorations during their art class and learning Halloween poems during their language class.

The children are selling bluebirds for the benefit of the Orphans home. They have been quite successful. The results of the blue bird sale and Halloween parties will be published next week.

The domestic science girls served two breakfasts last week. The class was divided in half and each half took turn about eating and serving.

For each breakfast a host, hostess, eldest daughter and guest were chosen, each one performing her duty during the meal. The breakfast turned out nicely with the exception of a few slight mistakes.

The girls are preparing a luncheon menu which will be served some time in the near future.

Return From Big Hunt

Wade Keene, George Davidson and Walter Bigham returned Thursday of last week from their big game hunt in the Selway country. They hired a packer and 16 horses at Lowell and went up the Selway into the elk country. All three got the limit of elk and the party also shot deer for camp meat. They were gone 11 days and report a very satisfactory trip. They found game quite plentiful.

Democratic Speaking Tonight

Frank L. Moore, democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney for Latah county and Gub Mix, democratic candidate for representative, will address the voters of Kendrick, tonight, (Friday) at the Grand Theater at 8 o'clock p. m.

Items of interest Taken From Neighboring Papers

Attorney, Thomas A. Feeney and family, on Thursday of this week, moved their household goods to Moscow, where they expect to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Feeney have been residents of Genesee for some two and a half years and have made a host of friends here who will wish them well in their new location.

—(Genesee News.)

That our little town is slowly but surely placing itself on the map is becoming more evident every day. What with the local name she has achieved with her delicious mellons and more widely known for the fine quality of cherries that are raised here, but now comes the crowning achievement in a letter from Honolulu, P. I., asking for a milk goat to be shipped there.

It seems that several years ago Mr. W. Porter left this country for Honolulu he purchased a goat of C. W. Jessup and took it over with him. When he returned to the United States he sold the goat and just last week Mr. Jessup received a letter asking if he could furnish another one.

—Juliaetta Record.

Sixty-two delegates attended the Latah County Sunday School convention at Moscow last Saturday. A large amount of work was disposed of and a committee was named to act with a similar committee in southern Idaho in an effort to have an amendment to the state constitution that would permit schools to offer Bible study and church work as a part of their regular work, for which credits may be allowed.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. J. G. Eldredge; first vice-president, Miss Ruth Leland, Juliaetta; second vice-president, Mrs. R. C. Faust, Deary; secretary-treasurer, Thomas Newman, Potlatch. Elaine Davis was the delegate from the Deary Sunday school and Mrs. Katie Sisson, A. A. Whitman and John Brennan represented Avon. Mrs. R. C. Faust and son Rex also attended from Deary. —Deary Press.

Death of Frank Housel

Frank Housel, a well known resident of Juliaetta, was found dead Sunday morning in his room at the Perryman place, where he made his home. Coroner Leitch was notified but was unable to go to Juliaetta on account of illness, so deputized Dr. Faust of Deary, who happened to be in Juliaetta at the time to investigate the case. Dr. Faust reported that death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Housel was a bachelor and about 55 years old. For the past few years he has been a member of the forest fire patrol and spent his summers in the mountains, making Juliaetta his home in the winter months. He had many friends in this community and was a highly respected citizen.

Funeral services were held at the church in Juliaetta, Tuesday morning. The Masonic lodge of Kendrick had charge of the services at the grave, burial being made in the Lewiston cemetery. Mr. Housel was a 32d degree Mason.

John H. Phillips returned to his home in Clarkston, yesterday, after looking after farming interests on Potlatch ridge.

Newsy Notes From Southwick

Mike Forest was a business visitor in Kendrick the first of the week.

Mrs. Frank Souders and children spent Saturday at the Axel Eckman home.

Local Lines From Leland Town

Newsy Happenings From Neighboring Community

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parks last Thursday, the 23rd. Hugh thinks the boy is trying to say "daddy" already.

There is a doctor in town and he may locate here if the people are not too healthy.

The ladies of the Missionary Society will serve dinner in the hall downstairs on election day. Come and get a good dinner when you cast your vote.

Several of the people have been on the sick list the past two weeks. Mrs. Emil Larson is gradually improving; Raleigh Smith is about and started school but Herman Koepp is still at home sick. They seem to have some kind of yellow jaundice which makes them very sick.

There will be a Halloween program at the school Friday night, followed by a real old fashioned Halloween carnival featuring a fortune telling witch, den of horrors, etc. Booths with homemade candy and cider, etc. will serve toothsome refreshments. The pupils have been practicing their plays for some time and are expecting to put over something extra good. Everybody welcome. Come and join the "spirits that evening and bring a good spirit" yourself.

The Missionary Ladies are planning a Bazaar for November 14, in the Oddfellows hall.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Parks motored to Lewiston last Saturday morning, returning Sunday.

Rev. J. H. Dills, the Presiding Elder of the Methodist church will hold the quarterly conference on Saturday evening, November 8th. Everyone is urged to attend this meeting to be followed by refreshments and a general good time.

Idaho Memorial Drive

"Idaho's Immortal 600 Shall Not Be Forgotten," is the slogan adopted by the Idaho Memorial association for its statewide drive Armistice day, November 11, at which time the citizens of Idaho will be given an opportunity to contribute to a fund of $250,000 to be used in erecting a permanent memorial building dedicated to Idaho's war dead of both the Spanish-American and World war.

Paul Davis, formerly state commander of the American Legion and now managing director of the association, reports that county organization work has been virtually completed and that the machinery for the drive is ready to start.

The memorial is to be a building on the campus of the University of Idaho.

In connection with the movement the association is collecting records for a history of Idaho's participation in the two wars. In this history will be written records of every man and woman who entered the service.

Vote for G. F. Walker

There are still a number in this precinct who have failed to register for the general election. Tomorrow is the last day that registrations will be received. Mr. McCrea has charge of the registration in this precinct.

Every qualified voter in this precinct should be registered before the election so that G. F. Walker, candidate for county commissioner of this district, may receive a big vote in his home precinct. Mr. Walker received a splendid vote from Kendrick precinct in the primary election and he should be given the same substantial majority here next Tuesday, regardless of party lines. He is the only local candidate on either ticket, which is one reason why he deserves your support but in addition to this he is qualified in every way to serve Latah county in the capacity of commissioner. He deserves your vote next Tuesday.

Miss Genevieve Stanton was a Moscow visitor last Friday.

Mrs. Anton Nelson

Mrs. Anton Nelson passed away at her home on Upper Bear ridge, Thursday morning, October 30. Funeral arrangements will await the arrival of relatives. An obituary will be published in the Gazette next week.

Women Are for Governor Moore

Say he Made Few Promises and Kept Them

A well informed women on the Idaho situation made the following statement not long since:

"I am in favor of re-electing Governor Moore and the entire Republican State ticket for the reason that two years ago Governor Moore, in his campaign for Governor, made but few promises and those he did make have been kept. He promised to run the State for less money than was used the previous two years. Under his administration there has been a saving of over one million dollars. Idaho has had many candidates for Governor who have promised the people of the state a business administration but none have kept the faith any better or quite as well as our present Governor."

Governor Moore does not believe in public ownership of electric light plants, telephone systems and other public utilities for the reason that under public ownership such properties will be exempt from taxation and the railroads and other public utilities are paying from 10 to 50 per cent of the taxes in the various counties in the State of Idaho. Public ownership of railroads and other like utilities means more taxes upon the home owner and the farmer and each taxpayer should vote to keep taxes down. The large saving which has been made during the last two years has been without detriment to any public functions of the State. Our schools have been well maintained, our charitable and penal institutions have been well provided for and for the first time in the history of Idaho the inmates of the penitentiary are in a measure self-supporting. The most bitter opponents of Governor Moore do not charge him in any manner with extravagance and while other candidates may promise further reduction in taxes the voters of Idaho can safely rely upon Governor Moore making further reductions without injuring the welfare of the people.

MRS. A. H. OVERSMITH
Vice Chairman Republican National Committee.

On Trial for Murder

The case of Sam Myers, who is charged with the shooting of Gordon Harris, Tuesday of last week, was brought to trial Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Myers was one of the four bank robbers who took $625 from the Craigmont bank last week. Myers was sitting in the back seat of the car in which the four robbers were attempting their escape, and is known to have engaged in the shooting.

He was arraigned in the district court Saturday morning and plead not guilty. Judge Miles S. Johnson named Attorney C. H. Baldwin to defend Myers while the state will be represented by Prosecuting attorney J. L. Phillips and Attorney Leo McCarty.

The jury selected to try the case is as follows:
P. H. Mullarkey, Lewiston Orchards
R. L. McCracken, Gifford.
Phil Crawford, Sweetwater.
Gosta Axelson, Lewiston.
J. W. Joy, Lenore.
Charles Hoffman, Leland.
William Chandler, Lewiston.
A. H. Smith, Leland.
A. G. Wisner, Lewiston.
J. P. McFadden, Lenore.
M. M. Parks, Peck.
P. R. Bevis, Lewiston.

Kendrick News 20 Years Ago

Item Taken from the Gazette Published in 1904

A patent medicine show entertained the passers-by on Main Street Tuesday evening.

The Fraternal Temple has been started. The trench was dug this week and the cement foundation begun. Brick and other material is being hauled and we may expect to see the walls rising ere another issue.

We learn that a two-story brick hotel has been contracted for by L. H. Daugherty to be built on the Star restaurant site and understand B. Penland has the contract. Mrs. Miller will lease the same as soon as completed.

Judge Terry announces a grand opening of the Court Saloon on Thanksgiving, at which "Tom and Jerry" and all the other drinkables will be on tap, as well as pretzels, crackers and a fine collation. He invites the citizens to attend this event and examine the fine brick just fitted up.

R. B. Vaughan has been selling his cattle and leaves the first of the week for Moscow, where he will reside for the next two years as our county assessor.

A. Hapson and James Emmett have just returned from south Idaho where they each invested in a quarter section of the famous Twin Falls land.

J. F. Brown is again on the street after a protracted illness with typhoid. We understand the other victims of this scourge are convalescent.

Rev. J. A. Hedges and family have shipped their freight and leave next Tuesday for their new home in Pocatello. Mrs. Hedges' parents, who have lived with the family since their arrival here seven years ago, will continue to reside here.

Back from Missouri

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Thomas returned this week from their visit with relatives in Missouri. They report a very enjoyable trip.

They left Kendrick September 12 for Brechtree, Mo., which is in the southern part of the state and is the home of a sister of Mr. Thomas, whom he had not seen for 16 years. They also visited two brothers of Mr. Thomas in Howell county. On their way home they stopped a few days at Liberal, Missouri, where they visited Dick Worsley, a former Potlatch. Mr. Worsley has a nice place there and was glad to see friends from this section.

Mr. Thomas lived in southern Missouri before coming to Idaho. He noted much more progress in the western towns than in the places which he passed through on the other side of the mountains. He saw no country on his trip that compared with the Potlatch.

Mr. Thomas brought samples of cotton, just as it was picked from the stalks. The boll and leaves are still green. It is one of the few commodities that cannot be successfully raised in the Potlatch.

Election Returns by Radio

The Kendrick Commercial Club is planning to have a short business session at the banquet hall of the Fraternal Temple, next Tuesday evening. Dinner will be served by N. Brocke after which a social evening will be spent. Election returns will be received over the radio, which will be amplified so that those in the room may hear clearly. Card tables will be provided for those who wish to play. Those from the country who would like to attend the meeting please notify Dr. McKeever, secretary not later than Monday afternoon. A fee of 50c will be charged to defray expenses of dinner. It is necessary to know in advance the number who will attend so that Mr. Brocke will know how to arrange the tables.

"War" Map Shows Tuberculosis Area

War on Cattle Disease Goes on With Increasing Vigor in United States.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The war against animal tuberculosis, under the leadership of the United States Department of Agriculture, goes on with increasing vigor from month to month. In order that the country-wide situation may be clearly understood, and that the various regions may know just how much work they have ahead of them, the department recently prepared a new "war" map which shows the extent of the plague in all the states.

Show Progress Made.

On this map the shaded areas, varying from solid black to pure white, show what progress has been made and how the different regions compare. The scattered white spots indicate the modified accredited areas, those counties in which the infection has been reduced to 0.5 per cent or less. In the areas of deepest shading the infection is more than 15 per cent. The other areas have infection somewhere between these two extremes.

The area with 0.5 per cent or less of tuberculosis embraces 21,601 square miles, or 0.7 per cent of the entire area of the country. A large part of the United States, more than 2,000,000 square miles, has less than one per cent. This is practically 60 per cent of the entire area, and accounts for the recent statement by the department that 30 states promise to be free of the disease within eight years. A little more than 18 per cent of the country's area has from one to three per cent of the cattle tuberculosis the area being a little less than 537,000 square miles. Herds in areas making up 193,303 square miles, or 6.5 per cent, have from 3 to 7 per cent of tuberculosis.

The total area in which there are herds with from 7 to 15 per cent tuberculous cattle amounts to a little more than 115,000 square miles, which is 8.9 per cent of the total area. Only 2 per cent of the area, or 60,507 square miles, has more than 15 per cent of the herds infected with the disease. The average per cent of infection for the herds of the entire country is 8.8.

These figures are the result of averages obtained from the testing so far done. The percentages apply to the total cattle population which is estimated to be 68,927,613 head, but the size of the cattle population in the different areas is not in proportion to the area. The large area of 2,000,000 square miles in which there is less than one per cent of tuberculosis is about 69 per cent of the country, but contains only a little more than 60 per cent of the cattle. The area of greatest infection includes 4.3 per cent of the cattle.

Many Cattle Tested.

During the month of July, 478,291 cattle were tested in the United States, Wisconsin leading with 69,615 head. In 39 counties tuberculosis has been reduced to 0.5 per cent or less, the "modified accredited" areas. There are now in the country herds aggregating more than 5,000,000 cattle which have been tested once and found free of tuberculosis. Fully accredited herds contain nearly 1,000,000 cattle, and more than 7,800,000 cattle are under supervision with a view to being later accredited. In addition there are more than 2,500,000 cattle in herds which the owners have on the waiting list for the first opportunity for testing.

Canker Is Destructive and Contagious Disease

In damp weather or in low locations, canker is one of the most destructive and contagious of poultry diseases. To avoid it, locate your house on a high, dry spot where the drainage is good. Also make sure there are no holes or cracks in the roof and walls of the house.

Cleanliness inside the house is also important, for the organism that causes canker breeds in conditions of filth as well as dampness. The disease sometimes results from the use of moldy litter or feed, or from scratches the fowls receive from fighting, or from using sharp-edged feed or water cups that cut them.

Canker usually takes the form of hard, cheese-like patches around the eyes, mouth or in the throat of the fowl. Remove these as fast as they form with a stick or knife; being careful to make them bleed no more than necessary. Then touch up each ulcerated place with a cotton swab dipped in undiluted creolin, which can be bought at any drug store.

Another good remedy is equal parts of boric acid, pulverized camphor and subnitrate of bismuth—blowing the powder over the fowl's throat and mouth with a straw.

Remove all sick fowls from the main flock so that infection won't spread through the medium of feed troughs and drinking vessels.

Danger From Wire Tags

Farmers and dairymen should beware of the wire tags that come on feed bags, and other bits of metal, such as nails, pieces of wire and screws, which may find their way into the feed. Once swallowed, such objects may find their way to the heart of the animal, causing death. Care exercised in keeping the feed clear of these things may be the means of saving to the herd some of the best cows.

Feeding Dairy Cow

It is easy to let the cow slip down in her milk production, but very hard to bring her back. The cow that milked well during the early part of the summer, when the pastures were good, if allowed to go down when the pastures are poor and the flies a torment, will never come back and milk in the fall and winter as she should. A little feed will not only hold her from going down, but make it possible to keep her up to a good level for months to come.

Dehorn Bull Calf Early

If a bull calf is dehorned early in life it should be done with caustic potash soon after the animal is a week old. If neglected at that time it is better to wait until the bull is becoming old and shows a tendency to become ugly. Then the removal of the horns will calm the bull and make him more easily handled for quite a long time. Some bull calves are neglected and not given the best of rations or a clean stable. This helps to reduce their vitality and it never pays.

Average Production of Holstein-Friesian Cows

A total of 20,030 pure bred Holstein-Friesian cows now have completed yearly production records in the advanced registry of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America with an average of 15,603.2 pounds milk and 628.49 pounds butterfat, equivalent to 680.6 pounds butter, according to the report of the superintendent of advanced registry for the last fiscal year recently closed.

The average yearly production for 7,109 full-age cows is 17,548.2 pounds milk and 742.9 pounds butter; for 1-445 senior four-year-olds, 18,540.7
pounds milk and 687.3 pounds butter;
for 1,605 junior four-year-olds, 18,011
pounds milk and 678.4 pounds butter;
for 1,773 senior three-year-olds, 15-444.3 pounds milk and 651.7 pounds butter; for 1,993 junior three-year-olds, 14,531 pounds milk and 614.5 pounds butter; for 2,312 senior two-year-olds, 13,971.7 pounds milk and 591.7 pounds butter, and for 3,793 junior two-year-olds, 13,000 pounds milk and 555 pounds butter.

Of these 20,030 cows 84 hold yearly records of over 1,000 pounds butterfat, or 1,250 pounds butter, and 66 have in 365 consecutive days produced over 30,000 pounds milk.

DAIRY
FACTSSTERILIZED VESSELS ESSENTIAL IN DAIRY

The dairyman who does not have a well-defined idea of what each and every cow in his herd is producing is in a bad way for making the greatest possible income out of his herd.

So many men cannot yet realize the absolute necessity for use of the Babcock test for butterfat percentage determination. Year after year many a man works all day and half the night under the mistaken impression that the cow that produces the most milk is the best cow. Such is not always the case.

The cow that produces 40 pounds of milk a day that tests 2.8 per cent returns 1,120 pounds of butterfat which when sold at 40 cents a pound returns an income of 45 cents daily. The cow that produces 25 pounds of milk a day testing 5 per cent returns 1,250 pounds of butterfat which when sold at 40 cents returns 50 cents per day.
In the course of a month the cow producing 15 pounds of milk less a day will return to her owner $1.50 more and if the same relation should hold true for a year this would amount to $18 difference, which on a herd of 20 cows would run into real money.

So it is not always the low producer that should be culled out. There are more cows giving 40 pounds of 2.8 per cent milk than most people realize and usually they are profitable cows, but so often the cow producing but 25 pounds of 5 per cent milk is regarded as an unprofitable cow when in reality she returns more than the cow making 40 pounds daily.

A butterfat test on every cow every month of every year will serve as a valuable indication of the true worth of the cows. Such a test can be obtained in almost every section of the state either through cow-testing associations, cow-testing circles, cream stations, county extension agents or Smith-Hughes schools.

A little trouble every month may save many a dollar spent for feed on an unprofitable cow.—H. R. Lascelles, Fieldman for Colorado State Dairy Commission.

Good Intelligent Care of Sire Very Important

Too often we fail to appreciate the value of giving the sire good care.
This animal should be the best we can obtain. A poor sire is a losing proposition, no matter if he is registered.
If good and of the right backing we should endeavor to get as large an offspring as possible from him.

Allowing the sire to run with the herd is a wasteful practice. If he is good he should be used on more females instead of being allowed to wear himself out on a few head.

As an illustration, a good bull of mature age will serve a herd of 125 head if the breeding is done under limitation. He should be kept up in well lighted and ventilated quarters with access to a pen for exercise.

One service of the sire is sufficient and more simply tends to tear down his vitality. He should be kept in just good ordinary condition and not too fat, in order to get the best results.
The feed should be good and substantial and should not be overbalanced one way or the other.

Good intelligent care of the sire will result in more efficiency in the breeding operations.

DAIRY FACTS

SILOS IMPORTANT FOR FEEDING COWS

Business farmers and experiment stations have found that a silo not only increases the yearly profits of the farm but eliminates many uncertainties of live stock raising; and dairy farmers are realizing more and more the place of the silo in the successful feeding of dairy cows.

Many products which if fed dry have little feed value are converted into splendid feed by a silo, says W. J. Keegan, extension dairy husbandryman at Clemson college, in discussing the importance of silos in dairying. Sixty per cent of the feeding value of a good corn crop is in the ears and 40 per cent in the stalks and leaves.

When the crop is a partial failure, a much greater percentage of the total nutrients is in the roughage, and in the event of protracted drought, the roughage often contains practically all of the food elements. Putting the corn in the crib, therefore, does not mean that the crop is all harvested. Can the farmer afford to waste 40 cents out of every dollar when by putting his corn crop in the silo, he can get its full value, 100 per cent? No.

Silage has no equal as a succulent and economical feed for dairy cattle. It keeps up the flow of milk when pastures are short, and during the winter months it keeps up milk production at less cost than dry forage alone.

The Ohio experiment station has shown that a silage ration produces butterfat for 41 per cent less cost than does a grain ration. Besides, a silo is a very economical storage place, as ten tons of silage can be stored in the same space as one ton of hay.

The filling of the silo can be done in wet as well as in dry weather, while other crops would be entirely lost if harvested under these conditions. If enough silage is produced all the year round, the pasture acreage can be reduced and thus a larger acreage may be used for cultivation.

Another great advantage of the silo is that the land upon which silage is grown is cleared early in the season and ready for fall and winter crops, either rye or oats for winter pasture or oats and vetch for hay. Furthermore, the use of silage during the summer is particularly applicable on high-priced land. In pasture, it requires one to three or more acres a season for each cow, while one acre of corn in the silo will supply succulent roughage for several cows for a like period.

It will not pay to build a silo for less than ten head of dairy cows, but the farmer with at least the minimum number should at once plan to build a silo. The dairy farmer who in the fall has a silo or two full of good corn or sorghum silage, need not worry about what his cows are going to eat.

Misconception

B. S. D. hands in this one: "And they tell me you're a newspaper writer," gurgled the sweet young thing. "That's so interesting! Do you know, it's awfully stupid of me, but I didn't know there was such a thing. I've always thought they printed newspapers!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
