KENDRICK, LATAH COUNTY, IDAHO, FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1936

NO. 23

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK'S NEWS DISPATCHES

Washington.—Rexford G. Tugwell's resettlement administration won a vote of confidence in the senate on the first test of strength in the $2,369,000,000 relief-deficiency bill. This action, by a 38 to 28 ballot in which party lines were shattered, followed swift approval of a provision under which President Roosevelt would be given sole control of the $1,425,000,000 relief fund included in the bill. Although this vesting of power in the chief executive was given without a record vote or a word of debate, Senator Steiwer (R., Ore.), asserted later the entire relief section was "un-constitutional." Chairman Glass (D., Va.), of the appropriations committee which handled the bill likewise added later that he was opposed to "lump sum" appropriations and thought "the people of the United States ought to know what this money is going to be spent for."

Boise.—Death and alcohol help pay the bills for Idaho's annual $12,000,000 educational program. Under a law that has been on the statute books 11 years, the state public school endowment fund has been enriched $63,997 through the death of persons who left no wills and no known heirs. Under another law, the state liquor control act of 1935, the public school income fund receives upwards of a hundred thousand dollars annually from liquor store profits. These sources of revenue combine with receipts from sales and beer taxes, store licenses and state and county ad valorem levies to maintain the common schools and institutions of higher learning which are annually attended by 120,000 students—a fourth of the state's population.

Tokyo.—Yakichiro Suma, Japanese consul general at Nanking, was quoted by the Domei news agency as declaring the Sino-Japanese situation is such that "China must choose between dependence on Japan or war with Japan." Suma's statement, that agency said, was made at Kobe, Japan, on his arrival there enroute to Tokyo from Nanking to report to Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita. The newspaper Asahi quoted Suma as stating: "It is reported that China is approaching the soviet and also is harboring designs to carry out some anti-Japanese schemes with an understanding with America and Great Britain. Such action would only be explainable by China's ignorance of Japan's real intentions and power. If such reports prove true this trend must be rectified. Permanent peace in the far east is impossible unless China depends upon Japan."

Philadelphia.—Dr. F. E. Townsend, leader of the old age pension movement, and the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, head of the Share-the-Wealth clubs organized by the late Sen. Huey P. Long, announced they have joined forces. "We are presenting a common front against the dictatorship in Washington," Dr. Townsend said. The announcement was made after a conference with Smith, as they paused here overnight on their way to Allentown, Pa. They said the first attacks in their campaign will be made soon at a mass assembly in that city, where both are scheduled to speak. "Anyone but Roosevelt" was their choice when asked concerning presidential preferences.

Boise.—Although 71 years have elapsed since the close of the Civil war, 33 Idahoans—one-time union soldiers, whose ages end-on-end would span almost 30 centuries—still are standing by for the last command. In just one decade their time-worn ranks have been thinned from 250 to only 33. Five joined their comrades recently in the first four months of 1936. Ten years ago there were 36 posts in the state department of the Grand Army of the Republic—now there is only one, the Phil Sheridan post No. 4 of Boise, housed in a hall built in 1890. Today it stands as the state's lone shrine to the memory of the warriors of '65.

Washington.—Riding down republican attempts to shift the administration of relief back to the states and to block the Florida ship canal, the senate passed by a 62 to 14 vote a more than $2,428,000,000 relief and deficiency bill. The measure, as it went back to the house for action on senate changes, carried added items that made it one of the biggest supply measures in peace-time history. Passage cleared the way for debate on the tax bill, the last big barrier to adjournment. As the senate sat until long after dusk, amendments were added to the relief bill so rapidly that clerks could not compute the exact total, but figured it roughly at something in excess of $2,428,000,000.

W. W. P. Cooking School

The Washington Water Power Co.'s electric cooking school, conducted by Miss Helen Frederic, home economist of that company, was a huge success, and much enjoyed by the ladies of the community, including a number from Juliaetta.

Two electric ranges, two electric refrigerators and one electric hot water tank were used in the demonstrations. Two complete meals were prepared, including desserts, and instructions given the audience in the most efficient and economical use of both stoves and refrigerators. Some 50 ladies were in attendance.

Prizes were awarded many. Mrs. W. B. Deobald being given a beautiful table lamp, Mrs. Sam Bigham an electric sandwich toaster, Mrs. Otto Schupfer a bed lamp, and the various prepared meals and desserts apportioned out. The attendance would have been much larger had it not been for the Rebekah convention in Moscow, as many attended it.

ROAD INFORMATION OF INTEREST TO ALL

Many conjectures have been made concerning the three miles of road now in the process of construction at Arrow toward Juliaetta and Kendrick, and the information gleaned will be of interest to all.

James Crick of Spokane, contractor for the job, began work on the abutments of the bridge near Arrow, a week ago—Monday morning, and states that satisfactory progress is being made by the crew of 25 men now employed. This bridge is to be 26 feet wide and 133 feet long, of reinforced concrete construction. No machinery is now at the work, as all labor so far has been by hand, with men digging bridge abutments and constructing camp near the Raleigh Albright home. The machinery is expected to arrive within the next week or so, when the dirt will really begin to fly.

In the engineers estimate, prepared by J. H. Cairns and the force of engineers located at Kendrick, there are 39,000 cubic yards of rock to be moved, and 50,000 cubic yards of "common," or mixed rock and earth. This is going to take some time and it is not expected to complete the work for approximately four months.

The labor being employed by Mr. Crick is from WPA rolls at Lewiston, with the exception of some highly skilled labor and the supervisors, who are employed outright.

An effort is going to be made to keep the road open at all times, but conditions may necessitate its closing for a few hours now and then, owing to the type of work being done and the location of machinery.

According to information received by J. H. Cairns, bids will be called June 12 on the Wauncher gulch grade, a link of the Ashakka-Kendrick highway. When completed, one more link of badly needed farm-to-market road will have been built, and of all things needed in this section, roads head the list.

ANNUAL JUNIOR 4-H SHORT COURSE U. OF I. JULY 20-25

Announcement comes from the office of W. L. Stephens, northern district extension agent with the University of Idaho agricultural extension division, that the fourteenth annual Junior 4-H short course will be held on the campus of the University of Idaho for six days, July 20 to 25, inclusive. This feature in the annual 4-H program for the members in the northern and southwestern districts is under the supervision and direction of the agricultural extension agents with the assistance of the county agents attending.

The ninth annual short course for southeastern and south central Idaho will be held at the University of Idaho Southern Branch at Pocatello for the 4-H clubbers from June 8 to 11. J. W. Barber, district extension agent will be in charge of this camp. Instructions in improved methods of handling club projects and making these enterprises more profitable will be given by the university agricultural faculty. Judging work will be given attention as will an enthusiastic recreational program have a place in the daily schedule.

Attendance at these club camps has been increasing each year that they have been held. The first short course at Moscow in 1923 had a registration of 102 boys and girls. Last year all previous enrollment records were broken when 391 4-H members took part in the week's activities.

G. C. Anderson, district extension agent for the southwestern district will accompany the club delegation from the south to the Moscow short course.

These short courses mark one of the highlights of the club year. That Idaho 4-Hers appreciate the advantages offered during this week is shown by the outstanding club work demonstrated by them following this week of training.

Big Egg Contest Closed

The Gazette's "big egg" contest, which has been going on for the past six weeks, came to a close last Friday evening, with Mrs. Ernest Schmidt of Leland bringing in the biggest egg. It measured 7-3/8 by 8-3/8 inches in size, laid by a White Minorca hen.

The next in size was one brought in by Emma Hartung that measured 6-7/16 by 8-1/8 inches in size.

There were some 18 "exhibits" in all and many of them were well up in size, but the two mentioned above were by several "16ths" larger than the others.

There have been many comments on the size of the entire collection, but of course we had to tell them they were only a few of the fair-sized ones that were too large to go into packing cases.

They are still somewhat behind the small watermelon Joe Piper brought over from his patch on the river last fall, when he just happened to kick into it accidentally. The weight, if we remember correctly, was 57 pounds.

Warehouse Changes Hands

The Farmers National Warehouse Co., warehouse at Kendrick, formerly the old Vollmer-Clearwater Co. warehouse was on Tuesday taken over by the Lewiston Grain Growers, Inc., according to announcement by Manager J. W. Shepherd.

The annual meeting of the organization will be held Monday at the offices in Lewiston, and next week we will perhaps be in a position to give more detailed information.

Jurors Return

M. O. Raby, Geo. Leith and Harry Langdon from Kendrick, and Jack Heacock, Frank Spray and C. Biddison from Juliaetta, who have been serving on the trial jury at Moscow for the past few days, were discharged from duty Tuesday evening and have returned to their homes.

Wheat Contracts Signed

County Agent McAlexander and his crew from Moscow, assisted by the local committee, was very busy Wednesday signing up and explaining the new soil contracts to the farmers of this section. A very good attendance was reported.

Will Live With Daughter

N. Brocke left Sunday for Lewiston, where he will live with his daughter, Mrs. Caroline Wilcox. Mr. Brocke has been a resident of the Kendrick section for many years and his decision to make his home in Lewiston will cause many regrets among his host of friends here.

Returns Home

Mrs. Lydia Ameling returned home last Thursday after spending the past three weeks in Craigmont at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ward Howell. Mr. Howell has been elected superintendent of the Craigmont schools for the coming year. They expect to spend the summer in Craigmont, where they have purchased a home.

EMPHASIS ON FARM-TO-MARKET ROAD PROGRAM

City and country will be brought closer together through the basic construction work accomplished under the Works Progress administration farm-to-market road building program, J. L. Hood, state WPA director points out.

Emphasis on the farm-to-market road program is upon providing farmers with a sound roadbed, surfaced with nearest available local materials. Included in the program is road and street construction work in villages and small towns serving as agricultural shipping points, Hood said.

"That it was necessary to devise work plans for those unemployed and on relief in the country and small town areas is evident from the fact that a study conducted indicates that many rural households and small town households receive some form of public relief."

To date 585 miles of road in Idaho have been under WPA construction. Of this total 132 miles were new construction, while 453 miles received repairs and improvements such as grading, straightening and surfacing.

Forty-seven bridges of all types and sizes have been completed. Some were across rivers; others small creeks and irrigation ditches. Forty-nine more are under construction and will be completed soon.

Earnings of workers on secondary roads, feeder roads and bridges have totaled $414,000 since the beginning of the program. More than 1,240,000 man hours were devoted to the work. The sum of $141,808 has been spent for materials, supplies and equipment on highway, road and street projects.

The peak of employment in the program was reached Feb. 29, 1936, when 2,600 men were working.

Should WPA continue after June 30, much of the work done will be on farm-to-market and mine-to-market roads.

Vacation Church School

The Vacation Church school of the Community church will close Friday after 10 days of very interesting work and play.

We wish that any of the people would look in on the groups Friday morning between 9:00 and 11:30. Parents will see some of the work when the children take it home, but we wish you to see the accomplishments of the school.

Many of the children who are studying the beautiful paintings of the "Life of Jesus" have splendid notebooks.

The two plays, one given by the first four grades, and the other by the fifth to eighth grades, will be given as a program for Children's Day, Sunday evening at 7:30. The community is invited to attend. The attendance record for the entire school shows a total of 70.

Baseball News

The newly organized league of Kendrick, Southwick, Gifford, Slickpool and Culdesac baseball teams are hitting their stride.

A schedule has been formed to run to July 19, with a playoff of the two high teams at the end of the regular season.

Kendrick met Culdesac on the Juliaetta grounds last Sunday, Kendrick winning 12-6. Gifford defeated Southwick at Southwick 8-7 and Slickpool drew a bye.

Following is the standing of the teams:

	Won	Lost	Percent
Gifford	2	0	100
Southwick	2	1	66 2/3
Kendrick	1	1	50
Slickpool	1	1	50
Culdesac	0	3	0

Visit Dougharty Home

The home of Mrs. Dora Dougharty at Juliaetta was the scene of very pleasant gathering Sunday, with Mrs. Carl Kinzer of Miami, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dougharty and Mrs. M. A. Deobald of American ridge. Lawrence Dougharty of Juliaetta gathered there.

Refreshments of delicious home made ice cream and cake were served.

BARLEY AND OATS MARKETS VERY UNSETTLED

Pacific Northwestern barley markets developed a weaker tone during the week ending May 29, reflecting some slackening in demand and further shipments of California feeding barley into these terminals. No. 2 bright, western barley, testing 46 pounds, declined around 2 1/2c per 100 pounds during the week and was quoted at Portland May 28, at $1.15 per 100 pounds, sacked basis, with California feeding barley testing 44 pounds quoted at $1.05 per 100 pounds, basis FOB cars Portland.

Oats markets tended downward with a slow demand the principal weakening factor. Receipts were very moderate but were somewhat in excess of current needs and elevator stocks in middlewestern areas increased.

Pacific Northwestern markets were lower with slackening in demand and increased offerings from growers the principal weakening factors. Shipments of about 560 tons of oats from Puget Sound and Columbia river ports to Atlantic Coast points on previous sales were reported. The condition of Willamette valley crops is reported generally satisfactory. On May 28, No. 2 white oats were quoted at Portland at $1.08 to $1.10 per 100 pounds, sacked basis.

Middlewestern oats markets declined, influenced by a dull demand. The slow shipping inquiry at Minneapolis was reflected in the increase in elevator stocks, although receipts were only moderate. At the close of the market May 28, No. 3 white oats, heavy, were quoted at Minneapolis at 72c to 74c, with No. 3 white oats at 70 1/2c to 72 1/2c and at Chicago at 78c to 80c per 100 pounds.

Editor's note: Saturday, being a national legal holiday, the regular weekly grain review was not issued. However, it will again appear next week.

Will Attend School in Colorado

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Grover and baby daughter left Saturday morning for Moscow, where they will spend a week with relatives and friends. They expect to leave June 8 for Fort Collins, Colorado, where Mr. Grover will attend the summer session of Colorado Agricultural college, continuing his work for a master's degree in vocational education.

Leaving Moscow they will go via Coeur d'Alene to Salmon City, where they will spend a few days visiting friends. From Salmon City they will continue their travels to Rigby, where they will visit Mr. Grover's parents a few days before going on to Fort Collins.

They expect to visit Denver and the Pike's Peak region before returning to Kendrick this fall, where Mr. Grover will again be in charge of Smith-Hughes work in our schools.

Alcie Ingle U. of I. Graduate

Alcie Eleonore Ingle of Kendrick will don cap and gown with 431 other students of the largest graduating class in the history of the University of Idaho at its 41st annual commencement, June 6, 7 and 8. This year's parade of graduates will number 432, the university registrar reports, exceeding by 62 the class of 1935 and by 28 the largest previous graduating group, 404 in 1932. Of this record breaking group 363 will receive their bachelor's degrees and 57 their master's degrees. Miss Ingle will receive the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education.

Daniel Milton Lyons of Southwick will also receive a degree in the 1936 graduating class. His will be a Bachelor of Science.

Van Kleeck Returns

Wm. VanKleeck, who was employed at the Thomas Creamery about a year ago as buttermaker, and who resigned to take a position over in Washington, has returned to the Thomas Creamery and will hold the position as foreman. Mr. VanKleeck is an expert buttermaker and Mr. Thomas is indeed lucky to again have him with the organization.

Carl Hodgins, who has been working for Mr. Thomas in various capacities, has resigned his position and, it is understood, will seek work outdoors, at least until he has regained his health.

Suffers Broken Hip

Oriel Dumbauld of Juliaetta, had the misfortune to fall on the front steps of his home, the latter part of last week, and break his left hip. He is said to be getting along as well as could be expected.

TALKING

CONFIDENTIALLY . . .

Neighbor to Neighbor

"By practicing and encouraging loyalty to Kendrick district businesses, institutions, and industries, we are laying the foundation for a brighter tomorrow — building toward the future.

"Greater prosperity in our home town means greater prosperity for all of us as individuals. It's 'good business' to spend our dollars here where they have some chance of returning to us on their circuit of the community.

"Then, too, it's more than probable that we actually save money by buying goods in Kendrick, quality of merchandise, car expense, or freight being considered."

We are prompted to sponsor this message to the people of Kendrick and vicinity through our interest in community welfare.
