HUNTERS DEPART IN "DROVES"

It was an almost vain attempt at "business as usual" last week-end by those left behind in Kendrick firms — for if the "boss" wasn't away hunting — the customers were.

Starting last Thursday there was a steady exodus of local farmers and business men for the "fall timber" in search of deer and elk. The season opened October 1st, but most parties wished to get in a day or two early, get camp set up and perhaps do a bit of loafing before taking gun in hand.

By Sunday evening the meat cooler at Blewett's Grocery was overflowing, and meat literally "hanging from the walls." Good weather has proven a boon in the care of meat, and all seems to be in perfect condition. Snow doesn't bother much, but rain is a "bug-bear" when trying to care for meat in a hunting camp.

TIGERS DOWN DEARY 19 - 14 FRIDAY EVE, NEZPERCE NEXT

The Kendrick Tigers swept to their first grid win of the season Friday evening by dumping the Deary Mustangs in a close, rough and tumble eight-man contest, 19-14.

The Tigers came from behind in the second half to take their first win after three defeats. Deary still remains without a win in second district play.

Kendrick scored first when David Hudson swept end for 20 yards, after Kendrick recovered a Deary fumble on the Mustang 20. Jim Thomas turned in a pair of 20-yard runs for Deary, however, and that club jumped to a 14-6 half-time edge.

Bill Blewett started the Tigers on the road to victory in the third quarter, by running a punt 60 yards for a touchdown, and John Deweber supplied the badly needed big break in the fourth quarter by recovering a Deary fumble on the Mustang 30. Doug Shepherd pushed the winning touchdown across on a 10-yard burst.

The next game on tap for the Tigers will be this Friday evening when they meet Nezperce. Nezperce is undefeated thus far in season play, and will be looking for another win, while the Tigers will be looking forward to upsetting the undefeated squad. It should be a wide open game and worth your while to see. Game time is set for 7:00 p. m.

REGISTRATION UP AT UNIVERSITY

U. of I., Moscow — Leaving far behind the previous all-time high of 3,916 students for resident enrollment, the University of Idaho passed another milestone in its history last week by registering the 4,000th student for the current fall semester.

Ronald Rourke, a junior in education from Boise was student No. 4,000. Other late arrivals are expected to add to the total.

The university, showing steady growth throughout the years, has thus doubled its enrollment in a little more than a generation. On September 19, 1933, Margaret Pence of Payette registered as student No. 2,000 to set a record at that time.

Now attending the university are more than 300 sons and daughters of alumni. Many of the parents of these students were enrolled at the university in the 30's, when registration was half its present total.

"If numbers of students, instead of quality of education for Idahoans were our primary objective, the university could have a much larger enrollment today," said President D. R. Theophilus. "We feel that out-of-state students exert a broadening influence on our Idaho students, but we are holding down the number by requiring that out-of-state students be from the upper 50 percent of their high school graduating classes."

Over-all enrollment for the university this year will be about 8,000. In addition to serving more than 4,000 resident students, the university will bring instruction to about 4,000 more enrolled in correspondence courses and adult education classes throughout the state, D. D. DuSault, registrar reports.

NEW CAR SHOWING THIS WEEK

Most of the automobile industry will be showing their new models throughout the area this week.

As usual, the new models featured show from slight to drastic changes in body, size and mechanical workings.

Ford cars went on display last week, along with Dodge and Plymouth, while Mercury and Comet go on display today. Chevrolet, Buick, Pontiac, Oldsmobile and Cadillac are to go on display later this week. American Motors will display their new lines sometime next week.

It is too early to know or quote any of the changes, but it is expected that the motor manufacturers will be featuring a more economical motor, combined with a more beautiful body and an easier ride.

Be sure to see the new models — they come but once a year, and provide a great deal of pleasure, whether or not you are interested in buying.

HOMECOMING QUEEN TO BE?

U. of I., Moscow — A field of 13 candidates for Homecoming Queen honors at the University of Idaho was narrowed to five finalists last week, following an all-male campus vote.

ANSWER FIRE CALL

The Kendrick Volunteer Fire Department responded to a fire call Saturday afternoon about 3:30 — and extinguished a small grass fire near the Jack Kuykendall home. No damage was done.

FIRES SPRING UP AS INDEX CLIMBS

Norman Lewis, Deputy State Fire Warden, reported to the Gazette this week that the fire index was again on the climb, and that crews had been called twice during the past week to control fires in the district.

Lewis said that the fire index is presently near the 40 mark. Anything above 50 is considered critical. During the past summer the index reached an extreme point of 70.

A 150-acre grass fire on the old Coyote Grade last Friday put the Forest Service in action, and before it could be extinguished it had consumed some 30 tons of hay and done an unestimated amount of damage to fields and fence posts.

On Saturday, a 40-acre timber fire was reported on Hatter Creek, about 7 miles south of Princeton. The crews were on this fire over Saturday and Sunday. It was believed that the fire originated from carelessness by hunters in the region.

Lewis also added that the department is still issuing fire burning permits, but said that it is extremely dangerous to burn at this time, and requested that anyone holding such a permit do their burning with extreme caution.

GLORIOUS WEATHER

No one could ask for more glorious fall weather than we have been enjoying the past week. The days have been filled with sunshine, the mercury reaching into the high 70's and low 80's — and the nights bright with moonlight and stars. Night temperatures have been in the mid-40's, with not even a hint of frost.

The Potlatch river is hardly more than a trickle, but holding up better than could generally be expected. This, in part, is believed due to the Simplot operations at Bovill, which requires a holding pond, and means the release of a regulated amount of water daily.

Warehousemen say they believe all but a few fields of very late beans are now in the warehouses, and farmers, in general, could use rain to ease fall plowing and seeding, as the ground is generally quite hard and dry.

Local watermelons and tomatoes, are still coming in, and the quality is described as "quite good." This is late for garden produce, but then, it was a late spring.

The fine weather has also been a boon to those building new homes, and workmen are making the most of it.

Loggers, too, have been greatly favored by the fine weather, and an almost continuous stream of big trucks comes rolling down Kendrick's Main Street from early morning to well after dark.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoduffer, Gene-see, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hoduffer, Craigmont, visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Deobald and family, Sunday.

PROPER CARE OF MEAT IMPORTANT

U. of I., Moscow — "I've never skinned an elk or deer, I hope I never skin one; But this I'll tell you how and here, I'd rather have skinned than been one."

So says Miss Barbara Branthoover, 105 pounds, and nutrition specialist for the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Idaho.

"But if I did skin a deer in one of Idaho's forests," continues the diminutive Miss Branthoover, "I would know how to keep the meat in the best condition, and I'd take care to do so if I expected to feed it to my friends when I got it home."

And the nutritionist knows where-of she speaks. She says the first thing to do after the animal is bled and dressed out (carefully, mind you) is to hang the carcass where it can cool out as quickly as possible. It will cool on the ground if the body cavity is propped open and flies are kept away. Branches or small logs under the carcass lift it off the ground and allow the air to circulate all around it.

"The honored custom of dragging a deer carcass a few miles through alternate patches of dusty brush and swampy mudholes, is a thing to be deplored by the better calls of sportsmen," Miss Branthoover insists. "He who has the proper respect for good venison carries meat sacks in his pack or at least has them handy in camp — and a pack board. No flies, no dirt, and a reasonable load then possible even if two trips are necessary. And the meat is such that wives can be safely asked to cook it and friends invited to eat it."

Hunters — Bring your meat to us for custom cutting and wrapping. Don't to your order. Blewett's Market, Kendrick.

HUNTING DEATHS

As of today (Wednesday) Idaho has anything but a pretty record in hunting deaths, there being three in just five days. This is drawing considerable comment from the TV and radio news reporters.

YOU CAN CHEAT LIKE DAD DOES

It's hard to understand how parents can expect their youngsters to have any respect for traffic laws by the time these youths reach driving age. Widespread parental disregard for these necessary regulations can be directly blamed for some of the irresponsibility that gets the young drivers into trouble. It's a wonder that any considerable number of young drivers have any regard at all for the law.

Recently we've taken note of these acts of grownups who have children with them:

A woman pedestrian looks up and down the street and sees no automobile approaching nearby, grabs her little boy's hand, "Come on, let's hurry," and rushes across the street against the red light.

A man driving an automobile, a small boy in the front seat beside him, slows down slightly at a stop sign, then drives right through the intersection without stopping.

A woman in a station wagon, the back seats full of youngsters, cuts across in an illegal left turn without stopping.

A pedestrian pushing an infant stroller jaywalks across a busy downtown thoroughfare. He is accompanied by a woman leading a small boy by the hand.

A young boy boasts about his dad, who "always goes 80 miles an hour" on the highway.

A car occupied by what is obviously a family on a Sunday drive — a man, several children — roars out across the yellow line to pass another car on a hill and narrowly misses a collision. The whole family is laughing about it.

A man argues nastily with a traffic policeman giving him a ticket while a small boy in the car observes. These are not unusual, infrequent instances. They happen every day. You've seen some of them. We've all seen them. Some among us have been guilty parties.

Yet adults raise a big fuss over teenagers who seem to show no respect for traffic laws.

Who's to blame — teenagers or adults?

Much of a youngsters education comes from his elders example. The example set by a great many adult drivers is dangerous as well as shameful. Until irresponsible adults mend their ways on the public streets and highways, they can have little reason to complain about the habits of some of the youthful drivers.

We marvel that many youngsters are law abiding drivers in spite of bad examples they encounter on all sides. Probably school driving courses, "hotrod" clubs with safety programs, and an inborn sense of fair play have opened the eyes of many young drivers in spite of parental

BUYING A CAT

The antics of P. T. Barnum, the master showman of the last century, are still remembered today. Barnum was the fellow who coined the expression about "one being born every minute," and his entire career was built on his belief that exaggeration pays dividends. So, when Barnum was victimized by an adherent of his own sharp philosophy, it made news.

A Vermonter wrote Barnum and offered to sell him a cherry-colored cat for $600.00. Sworn affidavits accompanied the offer, each attesting that the cat was indeed cherry-colored. Barnum, looking for another novelty with which to catch the public's eye, sent the money.

In due time the cat arrived — and it was jet black. Around its neck was a ribbon. To the ribbon was attached this note: "Dear Mr. Barnum: In Vermont we grow black cherries."

GOOD PROGRESS

The sportsman and his guide had been tramping through the woods for hours. "How are we doing?" asked the anxious hunter.

"We're lost," was the answer, "but don't you worry — we're sure making good time."

AN OPEN LETTER TO KENDRICK AREA CAR BUYERS

DEAR CAR BUYER:

If you've been thinking about buying a new car this year, then, like most of us, you're looking for the most car for your money.

This year, the cars that give you the best value for your money are the all-new 1961 Mercury, or the outstanding Comet. They out value every car in their class by a wide margin, and here's why:

AS FOR MERCURY — For 1961 Mercury introduces the new Meteor 600 and 800 series — priced right in the heart of the low priced field, with Plymouth and Chevrolet. But the new low prices do not mean that any of the traditional Mercury quality and value have been removed. On the contrary '61 Mercury brings you the handsome styling, outstanding value, and features you look for in a new car.

Mercury for 1961 offers seven self-styling features: A PRE-LUBRICATED chasis that lets you drive 30,000 miles between lubrications; a new oil filter that lets you drive 4,000 miles between oil changes; fully aluminized mufflers with DOUBLE the life of ordinary mufflers; self-adjusting brakes, and spark plugs that clean themselves to keep your Mercury running smoothly longer than ever.

Mercury has an outstanding ride, thanks to its advanced Cushion-Link suspension, exclusive with Mercury — no other car has it.

AS FOR COMET:

The swing to compact cars in 1961 promises to be greater than ever. More and more people are realizing the value, the convenience, the economy a compact car offers.

And for 1961, the one compact car that again brings you space, glamour and outstanding value is Comet . . . the better compact car. Priced with or below the other compacts, Comet is the only compact that brings you fine-car styling with exquisite interiors and luxury touches everywhere.

It is the first family-size compact — provides comfortable, six-passenger seating room that other compacts sacrifice. There's plenty of space for a family-size load of luggage in the 28-cubic-foot trunk, too!

In Comet, you'll get big-car ride with small-car handling. The refined suspension and 114-inch wheelbase makes the ride steadier and smoother than many standard-size cars. And Comet handles and parks almost as easily as a baby carriage. What's more, Comet offers you a choice of 2-door and 4-door sedans, 2-door and 4-door station wagons.

YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF to see and drive the 1961 Mercury or Comet before you decide to buy any of the '61 models. Once you do, you won't be satisfied with any other car. Why not make it a point to see it TODAY in our showroom?

Sincerely,
James I. Kochel

make him an unusually interesting speaker.

wife, Ida Mae, who is a fine chalk artist and children's worker.

Services will be nightly at 7:30. All

DO YOU KNOW

The company I work for
is again under the gun.
Twice already PUDs have failed to establish themselves in Asotin County, the 1950 election being defeated nearly 6 to 1. But now, another PUD election is scheduled for November. They never give up. Three commissioners, if elected, have power under the law to condemn private property, go into debt, raise rates, and levy a two-mill tax to pay for their mistakes, and neither state or federal regulatory agencies have any say in the matter. That is more power than has the President of the United States. This PUD law, enacted in the depression year of 1929, is a dangerous thing and should be repealed.

Don't worry about traffic noise.
Americans have record players in 64 per cent of their homes, TV sets in 90 per cent, and radios in 96 per cent. With some of them going all the time, silence is a lost art.

It is reported that about 90 per cent of all new homes with natural gas available will enjoy gas heat this winter. If your old furnace must be replaced, by all means ask about gas heat — clean, economical, carefree. A conversion unit can usually be installed in one day's time.

It's hard to believe that only one hundred years ago a few venturesome men got the idea of carrying mail across trackless prairie and over mountain passes with the Pony Express. Today we are living in a different world.
Tomorrow, with atom power and strange drugs and big government, our lives will be still different.

Suppose you owned a grocery store, and next door stood another grocery store.
You paid 23 cents of each revenue dollar for taxes; the other fellow paid less than seven cents. You'll admit the other fellow could undersell
you, and that's the way it stands with PUDs—they pay not one penny federal income tax and only two per cent tax on gross revenue in lieu of property taxes. What a break!

SOIL CONVERSATION

"This May Be God's Country But It Looks Like the Devil Has Been Farming It!"

Soil Conservation Society of America

We can talk our way into oblivion. Even crows know that. Action to correct our major resource problems of droughts, floods and improper land use can come only through really cooperative conservation projects, not words alone. See your local soil conservation district today.

Twenty years of growth is the record claimed for the national 4-H clothing award program which today involves nearly three-quarters of a million girls between 10 and 21 years of age.

This report comes from the National 4-H Service Committee which developed the program over two decades ago in cooperation with the Extension Service. It has been supported ever since by Coats & Clark Inc., of New York.

Right now across the nation young seamstresses are putting the finishing touches on skirts, dresses and coats. The garments were carefully cut, stitched and sewn under the knowing eye of their local 4-H Club leader.

Many hopeful models also are rehearsing for a fashion show and exhibit of their handiwork in competition with other club members for county, state and national 4-H clothing awards provided by Coats & Clark.

An even dozen college scholarships worth $400 each are awaiting the 12 top 4-H'ers to be selected from 50 state winners next fall. The state champion will be a delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago with all expenses paid.

For more information about joining a 4-H Club contact the county Extension agent.

DROP DEAD

A teacher was called out of class for a few minutes one day. When she returned she found all the children sitting in absolute silence, their arms folded.

Shocked by the unusual state of decorum, she asked for an explanation. This was provided by a little blonde girl: "Miss Gunnels," piped the child, "you told us yesterday that if you ever left the classroom and came back and found all of us sitting perfectly silent you would drop dead."

Published Weekly by the Union Oil Service at Kendrick
W. L. "Bill" Rogers, Editor

HELLO, FOLKS:

How about it, hunters? Did you have luck or are you going to try it again? If you're in the latter category, come in for a full service job — with Union Products — before you go. Who knows — it may bring you luck.

Policeman: "Why didn't you stop when I blew my whistle?"
Inebriated Lady Driver: "Well, you see I'm slightly hard of hearing."
Policeman: "Don't worry. You'll get your hearing tomorrow!"

Chilly at your house? Why let it be so. Give us a call at 4251 for Union Heating Oils. We'll be there in a flash — with warmth!

"Captain," reported a perspiring detective, "we've been giving that ventriloquist the third degree for over two hours. So far, a plain-clothesman, three patrolmen, and a sergeant have confessed. Shall we go on?"

How about anti-freeze for your car, pickup or truck? Are they ready for winter? If not, bring them in. We'll install protection to your order, and check all connections for leaks.

Eating in a cafeteria, two men were overheard discussing automobiles.
"Yes, sir," said one, "I believe the best economy is to trade every two years. That's what I've done. And do you know," he continued proudly, "I haven't missed a payment in 14 years!"

Always travel "Union".
